ISLANDERS TO VOTE ON SCHOOL PLAN

—By-Law April 16

Expenditure of $74,000 is anticipated by the trustees of the Salt Spring School District (No. 64) in order to bring school facilities in the Gulf Islands in line with those elsewhere.

The school board will present a by-law to raise $38,000 on April 16. If approved, the provincial government will provide one half of the required amount and the ratepayers will match it with a like sum. An extra $1,000 is added to the figure to be raised under the by-law. This will cover the costs of holding the by-law and issuing the necessary debentures.

T. Fowler, of Ganges, secretary-treasurer of the board, explained that the trustees had investigated closely all the requirements expected in the course of the next few years. "The results of this survey," he said, "have been included in this by-law."

The by-law provides for the construction of one school, additions to a number of schools and repairs to other existing buildings.

New School

The school at South Galiano is to be replaced by a new two-roomed building. The work is not to be commenced immediately. The board calls for a construction start to be made about 1952 or 1953. The project will not require the expenditure of funds for the purchase of a site. This has already been donated to the board. Cost of the school will be $24,000. The only other entirely new structure contemplated is a new woodshed at Mayne Island school. This will replace the present building, which is in a very poor condition. Cost is estimated, under the by-law, at $500.

Pupils on Salt Spring Island have also been considered. The largest single item on the reconstruction program, the addition of two new classrooms and a large activity room to the Ganges high school is listed at $33,000. Conditions at this school are rapidly becoming overcrowded and the addition of an activity room will provide adequate facilities for organized recreational instruction.

Modification to the industrial arts section of the high school for the provision of a drafting room and the erection of a forge room on the north side of the present school. The work will cost in the region of $4,500. The lighting system at Ganges high school is to be brought up to date. This is a feature of school construction that has been the target of considerable work by the Saanich and South Vancouver Island Health Unit, which embraces the Gulf Islands. The board has also made provisions for the repainting of the school when the additions are completed.

To Modify Hall

The Mahon Hall at Ganges is to be modified. The primary purpose of this building, which is the property of the school board, is to serve as an auditorium and gymnasium to the high school. Alterations are to be made to the building to improve these facilities.

Work on the Mahon Hall will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000. North Galiano school is to have a "top overhaul". Work scheduled for this school, provided the by-law is approved, includes the re-roofing of the building and the addition of further windows in the north wall, to bring the school into line with more modern structures. This work is anticipated to cost $800. Minor repairs will also be undertaken at North Galiano school.

Pender Island school is to have the roof repaired and the provision of a cement floor in the basement, besides other minor repairs. The roof of the South Pender Island school is also to be repaired. These two items will represent about $1,200.

Detailed descriptions of the work proposed will be available from members of the school board, who will address public meetings throughout the school district, between April 9 and 12. Colin Mount of Ganges is chairman of the board. The board hopes to see these meetings well attended in order that the majority of ratepayers will be well-informed in the proposed work facing the trustees.

Invasion of Rats This Week At Sidney Elementary School

THERE was an invasion of rats at the Sidney elementary school this week. But it was a friendly invasion and the rodents were welcomed by the staff and children alike for they were baby white rats and not disagreeable wild ones.

The rats flew by T.C.A. from the University of British Columbia to Patricia Bay airport under a plan sponsored by the provincial public health nursing service. Four of the tiny creatures were delivered to Sidney school.

Tuffy and Fluffy—Luke and Gus

Mrs. B. Christian, principal of the school, will direct the pupils in an experiment with the rats. Two of them—already named Tuffy and Fluffy—will be fed the same diet prescribed for healthy children. The remaining two, in a separate cage, will be fed with candy and sweets and pop and other foods not recommended for children. The latter two have been named Luke and Gus.

Mrs. Christian will see that the school children weigh the rats regularly and take note of their apparent health. The experiment will continue for the next six weeks and some interesting results are forecast.

RED CROSS DRIVE IS WOUND UP THROUGHOUT DISTRICT

Red Cross drive for funds in this area has now closed. Only district for which figures are already available is Galiano Island. This island went over the top more than a week ago. The remainder of the area has responded generously to the appeal and many canvassers have reported not one case of a refusal.

The final totals have not yet been compiled, but in all areas the residents who have pressed the canvass have expressed confidence that the totals will be impressive.

As the territory is almost entirely rural, canvassers have been faced with difficulties in making a 100 per cent coverage of their districts. This factor and the absence of householders at the time of the call has left a number of people without having been contacted.

If there are any residents who wish to make a subscription and who have not been canvassed they should call the chairman of the drive in the area in which they reside. In Sidney, James Ramsay, secretary, is prepared to accept such donations, as F. J. Baker, J.P., drive chairman, is away from home.

Stork Has Busy Day March 28

Mr. and Mrs. O. Leigh-Spencer, well known residents of Salt Spring Island, became grandparents twice in one day—March 28, 1951. This is an honor which few share. They now are grandparents of seven—six boys and one girl.

The stork brought the grandson last Wednesday at Chalk River, Ont., to Mr. and Mrs. R. F. S. Robertson (nee Dorothy Leigh-Spencer). Bob Robertson is a research chemist with the Dominion atomic plant there. He served with the P.P.C.L.I. for five years, was wounded at Isona, won the M.C. and was retired with the rank of major. Mrs. Robertson served as a news reporter, first with the Calgary Herald and afterwards with the Victoria Times. She has been a frequent visitor to Salt Spring Island.

On the same day the same stork brought the granddaughter to Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Leigh-Spencer at Lady Minto Hospital, Ganges. The father, Frank Leigh-Spencer, is P.R.O. for Canadian Pacific Air Lines and met his wife in Japan while he served there as a pilot in the Royal Naval Fleet air arm.

FISHERMEN'S LEADER

Is Well Known In This District

Formerly a tug skipper and now a commercial fisherman, Capt. Reg. Payne, of Deep Cove, is at the head of the province-wide United Fishermen's and Allied Workers' Union.

Capt. Payne was elected president of the organization at the annual convention, held in Vancouver, March 22-24.

The union, which embraces commercial fisherman and workers in associated industries, has a membership of about 4,500. Members are from all parts of the B.C. coast, from Vancouver to Prince Rupert and the north.

This is not his first connection with the operation of a union. Years ago he was elected president of the organization at the annual convention, held in Vancouver, March 22-24.

The new president is a native of Victoria. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Payne, Madrona Drive, are pioneer residents of Sattara Island, where Capt. Payne spent many of his childhood years. He later returned to Vancouver to conclude his education.

DISUSED WELLS ARE DANGEROUS

Abandoned and uncovered wells and basement excavations are sought by the disaster committee of the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce.

The committee has turned its attention to the danger of such water traps to children in the North Saanich area. Dr. G. H. Hoehn, chairman of the committee, explained to The Review that in view of the frequency of tragedies caused by small children falling into abandoned wells and similar traps, his committee would like to make a survey of the situation in this community.

"We would like local citizens to report any such danger spots to our committee or to the local R.C.M.P. as soon as possible," said Dr. Hoehn.

Such reports would be more valuable if made in writing, he added. A sketch showing the exact location would also make the task easier for the committee.

"We are anxious to know of those that may be in isolated places as well as those near residences," continued Dr. Hoehn. "This is the time of the year when children go out on hikes and go exploring."

The committee feels that in view of the ease with which such hazards may be eliminated by the use of trucks and modern equipment, there is no excuse for their existence in the community.

Dr. Hoehn concluded his appeal with a call to the owners of property on which these traps are to be found. "If you have such a hazard on your property," he said, "please report if you plan to fill it or cover it securely."

BUSY WEEK-END FOR FIREMEN

Sidney volunteer firemen responded to two calls at the week-end.

On Saturday morning firecrew attended at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White, on Second Street. There was no fire to attract their attention. A cat had climbed about 50 feet into a tree and was afraid to attempt the descent.

Firemen climbed to the precarious perch and retrieved the animal after its four-day sojourn. On Sunday morning Walter S. Villers, Rest Haven Drive, had fired a small area of grass. The flames spread across the ground and threatened a chicken house. The firemen, headed by Chief G. A. Gardner, responded to the call and prevented further damage.

NO CHANGE IN POLICY OF COUNCIL

—On Voting

Voting reform has come to stay in Central Saanich. Council decided on Tuesday evening, that the controversial motion calling for across-the-state voting will not be rescinded. One move was made to conform with the expression of censure adopted by Thursday evening's public meeting. A clause is to be read into the provision for electoral reform in the Validating Act, to call for a plebiscite before any further move might be made.

Council heard a delegation from Central Saanich Ratepayers' Association. The association called for the rescinding of the motion already approved by the council. Ed. Logan, ratepayers' president, spoke to the council on this subject.

"The public meeting did not clearly ask council to rescind the motion," said Mr. Logan. "The executive of the association feels that it would be against the wishes of the ratepayers to act further in the matter of voting reform."

No Rescinding

Councillor Ray Lamont moved the original motion to rescind the motion and the opinion expressed by the Ratepayers' Association. There was no second.

Councillor Harold Andrew recalled that the reeve had previously stated that council need

Mill Rate Down

Ratepayers in Central Saanich municipality can expect a reduction in taxes in the current fiscal year. Full details of the estimates will be announced at Thursday evening's council meeting.

not be guided by the results of a public meeting. Reeve Sydney Pickles replied that his remark was being misconstrued. "I said that if we go to the meeting we may learn, I did not say that we would not be guided by the meeting, but that we may not act on it."

The reeve continued: "At a public meeting, attended by the council, it was overwhelmingly voted that the matter be dropped."

Councillor Lorne Thomson observed: "I do not believe that 50 per cent of the people there understood what they were voting for." "You are insulting their intelligence," retorted the reeve.

Councillor Lamont asked if the council was supposed to represent the people. "These gentlemen are not interested in what the people want them to do," he added.

HOUSE FIRE AT PATRICIA BAY

Home of Sandy Jones, Patricia Bay Indian, was extensively damaged by fire shortly after noon on Wednesday. The family was not at home and the alarm was not turned in until the fire had gained a good hold. Sidney Volunteer Fire Department attended the blaze and extinguished it before the home was totally destroyed.

Fire Chief G. A. Gardner stated that the cause of the blaze was not yet ascertained. Interior of the house and the lot were damaged and much of the furniture was destroyed.

WALLACE COURTNEY

A former resident of this district returned on Monday to revisit scenes which used to be familiar to him and to remark on the great advances made in the life of North Saanich in recent years.

He was Wallace G. Courtney, Victoria district traffic and sales manager of Trans-Canada Air Lines, recently transferred back to Vancouver Island from Bermuda.

Mr. Courtney is a native of Victoria where his father, the late Geo. L. Courtney, was district freight and passenger agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway.

In 1902, the airline executive's father purchased Sidney Island for $25,000. He farmed 500 acres of the island extensively and started the Sidney Island Brick Yard which made good bricks until 1915. In its heyday it employed 70 workmen and made as many as 55,000 bricks a day. The island was sold to a Victoria syndicate eventually.

Mr. Courtney planned to call on Monday on "Swanny" Swanson, a retired Sidney resident who was a long time employee of the Sidney Island Brick Yard in the early days.

Sold Meat in Sidney
On the Sidney Island farm, sheep were run extensively and Mr. Courtney recalled that a large quantity of meat was sold annually to the late Arthur Harvey, father of Dud Harvey, present proprietor of Local Meat Market in Sidney.

"I'm certainly pleased to be back in my old home and district and am impressed by the growing traffic on T.C.A. which is originating in North Saanich and from the Gulf Islands," he told The Review.

Mr. Courtney is keeping an eye out for an attractive piece of property in North Saanich and the day may come when he will establish his home in this area.

SIDNEY MAN GRADUATES

Pilot Officer Samuel G. Skinner, was one of 15 R.C.A.F. flight cadets who were presented with their pilots' wings and commissions at a ceremony held recently at the R.C.A.F. Flying Training school at Centuria, Ont.

P.O. Skinner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Skinner, 751 First Street, Sidney. He joined the R.C.A.F. in April, 1950.

Wings were presented by Air Vice-Marshal J. L. Plant, C.B.E., A.F.C., air member for personnel, Ottawa, Ont. P.O. Skinner will attend a two-month air armament course at Trenton, Ont., after which he will be posted to R.C.A.F. operational duties in Canada.

Prepare For Plebiscite

Growth of Sidney District Reflected In Voters' Lists

Plebiscite to decide the question of the sale of beer in Sidney will be held on April 17. The voters in Polling Divisions 45, 46 and 47 will be called on to express their opinion on this question.

Voting will be at three polling stations, one in each division. The Review is informed by W. E. Poupore, returning officer, that the polling station in Division 45, which runs across the Peninsula, from Sidney to Patricia Bay, will be at the home of G. D. Irwin, Harbor Road, and not at Patricia Bay Store, as previously announced.

Voters in Division 46, covering the area to the north of Beacon Avenue, will cast their ballots at 1800 Third St. Polling station for Division 47 will be the K.P. Hall on Fourth Street.

Registration of electors closed on Wednesday afternoon.

Steady increase in the population of the area around Sidney is reflected by the voters' list. Each

TO CALL FOR NEW BIDS ON SCHOOLS

—In Saanich

Trustees of Saanich School District No. 63, once opening tenders called for repair of existing schools and construction of new schools in the district, have conferred with officials of the provincial department of education on the problems created by the bids being higher than the amount of money voted in a by-law last June.

In the meantime, none of the tenders has been accepted and cheques of the tenderers, being five per cent of their bids, have been returned.

To Modify Plans

After the conference with education officials in Victoria, trustees have agreed to have the architects modify the specifications somewhat, deleting certain features of the buildings for the present and hoping to reduce the cost in this way.

As soon as the revised plans are available, tenders will be invited again and it is hoped that costs will then be in line with the funds available.

Meanwhile, bulldozing of the site of the new Sansbury elementary school, Lochside, is being completed by the contractor, A. MacPhail of Sidney.

At the same time, D. S. Godwin of Sidney is drilling the well at the same site to provide a water supply for the new school.

Session Of Parliament Is "Difficult"

Major General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., member of parliament for this district, was a Sidney visitor on Tuesday. He spent the Easter vacation at his Saanich home and will return to Ottawa at the end of this week.

Gen. Pearkes told the Review that the parliamentary session has been a difficult one so far.

"So many of the problems we have been called upon to face have transpired in party lines," he said. "Factors have been the different outlooks of the people in the east and the west, and between rural and city areas."

The most difficult matters discussed at Ottawa to date have been the defence programme; the emergency controls bill in which the government asked for powers which as yet they have not used to stop inflation; the defence production bill which allocated great powers to the minister, Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe; and the prairie wheat grant.

General looked well and reported he was enjoying the fine spring weather in this district following the winter season in Ottawa.

Pianist

Although Lou Snider's years in radio and show business as pianist, organist and arranger add up to the impressive total of 22, he is only 32. From the CBC's Toronto studios his keyboard antics and background music are heard regularly in such network programs as The Happy Gang, Life With the Robinsons, and National Farm Radio Forum. Because of his fondness for children—he has a nine-year-old daughter of his own—he says he gets a big kick out of being in several shows for juniors, like Maggie Muggins, Just Mary, Cuckoo Clock House, and the CBC school broadcasts.

Meistersingers Are Great Attraction At Brentwood Hall

Enthusiasm ran high on Friday evening, when the Meistersingers of Victoria appeared at the Brentwood W.I. Hall to present a musical program that was warmly applauded by the capacity audience.

Members of the audience expressed enthusiasm for the manner in which the artists were evidently enjoying their performance. Time and again entertainers were recalled for an encore.

The program included a number of featured turns, interspersed with offerings from the grouped choir.

CENTRAL SAANICH TAXPAYERS SETTLE CONTROVERSIAL ISSUE

Controversial issue of electoral reform in Central Saanich which has been facing the council for the past two weeks presented no problems to ratepayers of the municipality. At a town hall meeting in Saanich Agricultural Hall on Thursday evening ratepayers voted overwhelmingly in favor of rejecting the voting system proposed by Councillor Lorne Thomson and supported by Councillors Harold Andrew and Willard Michell. The voting on a motion from the floor opposing any change in voting procedure resulted in a division of 88 in favor of throwing the reform out and six who supported the suggested system.

Chairman R. A. Sansbury, of North Saanich, had his hands full when he was called on to maintain order among the speakers whose views on the subject were strong.

Councillor Thomson explained that he had imported his reform from Saskatchewan. "This is my baby," he told the ratepayers. "I got it from the C.C.F. government—it's the only good thing they've got."

"I can readily understand that it came from Saskatchewan," retorted Reeve Sydney Pickles, "I understand the same system worked very well in Germany and Italy and today is effective in Russia."

Members of the Saanich Community Pottery Club held their final meeting Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. Toni Peters, Mount Newton Cross Road. Pottery work was enjoyed, and arrangements discussed for the handicraft display to be held April 5 in the Orange Hall, following the community club meeting. During the evening, instructors Mrs. J. Combe and Miss Ruby Donald were presented with a token of appreciation from members for their untiring supervision throughout the season. Refreshments brought the evening to a pleasant conclusion, with Mrs. Toni Peters and W. Turner as joint hostesses. Guests were: Miss R. Donald, Mrs. J. Combe, Miss E. Jeune, Jill Turner, Marion Thompson, Mrs. Marshall, W. Turner, F. Edgell, V. Heal, R. Crawford, F. Dawson, Mrs. O'Reilly, A. Greenway, P. Laws and Gwen Nancarrow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Looy, with Joan and Allan, returned Monday by plane from Vancouver, where they had visited with relatives for several days.

An Easter party was enjoyed on Tuesday afternoon, when Janey Carmichael, Prosser Road, entertained playmates and friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carmichael. Games were enjoyed, after which a "tea party" was served with an appropriately decorated cake highlighting the occasion. Guests were: Sandy Nimmo, Marjorie and Eleanor Swain, Jean Facey, Anne Fromage, Marion Deans and Linda Mills.

Plans are well under way for the Saanich Community Club's first annual banquet to be held on April 14 in the Agricultural Hall. Following the banquet at 8.30, arrangements have been made for winning teams of the Saanich Suburban Basketball League to attend the presentation of trophies and cups, which will be made by President Ernie Stock, of Victoria. Refreshments will follow a program of entertainment.

Final games of the season were held Saturday night in the Sooke Community Hall when local Midget girls and boys journeyed to Sooke for victory and defeat. With the Women's Institute Cup at stake, Saanich girls were defeated in a rugged game which proved victorious for the Sooke players. But the Midget boys presented a good game with David Hancock back in the game after an illness, and getting off to a good start kept the lead, to win the Saanich Suburban League Cup.

DRAINAGE PLAN IS ABANDONED

Drainage of the Sluggish Ditch and Mount Newton Valley was finally discussed and abandoned at Tuesday evening's Central Saanich Council meeting.

Some weeks ago a motion had been passed by the council that the culvert at Stellys Cross Road be opened up and a sluice-gate installed.

Councillor Lamont moved that this original motion be rescinded. After hearing Councillor Harold Andrew describe reaction to the proposed work, council supported the rescinding motion.

Councillor Lorne Thomson, who had refrained from voting in this matter as he owns property in the area concerned, observed: "It would be a dangerous thing to install the gate: every heavy rain there would be a holler, 'Shut the gate!'"

Early Attention To Cirrhosis Imperative
States Author Of New Plan For Treatment

It is a long shot to the day when the treatment of alcoholism was delayed by the disapproval of an excessively polite society. During the past half-century the public, as well as medical science, has come to realize that like the poor, the alcoholic is always with us. It thus behooves the teetotaler as much as the tippler to attend to the needs of the alcoholic, from both preventive and therapeutic aspects.

To the layman the most significant feature of the effects of alcohol on the health of the individual lies in the possibility of cirrhosis of the liver. Although this disease, or development, may be caused by the introduction of a toxic into the system and be entirely unrelated to alcohol, the disease is normally associated with alcohol. Much as gout is, rightly or wrongly, always connected with port, in the mind of the majority.

Cirrhosis is a hardening of the tissue of the liver. It is most commonly found among men between the ages of 40 and 50 years. If it is not treated when the first signs are found it is likely to reduce the longevity of the victim by many years.

Renaissance of Antiques

At a workshop in Richmond, Surrey, the three Langhorn brothers, Robert, Albert and Stanley, are carrying on their family tradition for fine craftsmanship in the restoration and preservation of fine antiques. Though the demand for antiques of all kinds for furnishing and for interior decoration is rapidly increasing, the supply is necessarily limited, and the Langhorn brothers, serving clients from all over the world, bring all their craft and skill to the job of preserving and restoring the work of the original craftsman. Here Albert Langhorn is at work staining a piece of wood which has been inserted to replace a part of this table top which was badly burned.

New Swiss Discovery
F"99"
for Eczemas, Boils, Psoriasis, Leg Ulcers
THE DISCOVERY of one of the main causes of skin diseases will bring new health and happiness to thousands of people suffering from Eczemas, Boils, Leg Ulcers and Psoriasis. Science has established that the lack of unsaturated fatty acids in nutrition reduces the natural resistance of the body and leads to skin disease. As this precious substance—so essential to skin health—is often completely absent in modern food, the number of skin sufferers in all civilized countries has a tendency to increase every year.
Remarkable Discovery
A Swiss chemist, Dr. W. Schmitz, succeeded after 10 years of research work in extracting from pure vegetable oils an unsaturated fatty acid with a concentration of 99% and therefore named F"99". Thanks to this very high purity which was never attained up to now, F"99" is so readily absorbed into the blood stream, that it has a decisive biological activity in the treatment of skin diseases. Its remarkable efficiency has astonished even Skin Specialists of international reputation.
Natural way to clear up skin troubles.
F"99" is not a synthetic drug but a concentrate of natural nutritive substances. It is absolutely harmless and may be given even to infants without any hesitation. As its name suggests, the F"99" Two-Way Treatment acts internally (capsules or liquid) and externally (ointment). While F"99" Ointment treats the external symptoms, F"99" Capsules give the body the power to suppress the cause to combat successfully Eczemas, Boils, Leg Ulcers and even Psoriasis. To many thousands of skin sufferers all over the world, F"99" Two-Way Treatment has already proved its tremendous value.

The Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

This is the season in which to graft most fruit trees. Scion-wood is best taken while buds are still dormant and kept in soil to prevent drying out until needed. However, in pears and apples, backward shoots may be used as scions, even after there is some movement in the buds on the remainder of the tree.

The bark should slip freely for best results. This type of graft, used will be determined by conditions, size of the tree and the operator. Many types of grafts are illustrated in a chart available upon application. These include (1) bark, (2) cleft, (3) whip and tongue, (4) inverted L in framework, (5) budding, and many others.

Mature trees can be quickly worked over to another variety by frameworking. In this operation the scaffolding branches of the tree are retained and long scions installed about 12 inches apart. Whatever method is employed, do it now.

The tulip fire or botrytis season is with us again and hunting down the "fire heads" with their removal is necessary routine if one is to keep the spotting of the foliage and flowers in tulip beds and gardens to a minimum.

Finding and roguing out is most effective if started early in the season (first when the plants emerge) and continued weekly until after the passing of wet spring weather which favors growth of this fungus disease.

Needless to say, thoroughness is essential for proper control. Finding the fire heads, or primaries as they are often called, may take a little patience and practice at first, but they can usually be recognized by the dead or dying tissue which is invariably covered by a greyish mass of spores, which give the appearance of mould. Such diseased plants should be carefully removed, bulb and all, and preferably with the containing soil by placing in a paper bag which can be disposed of by burning or burying.

While such is the ideal method, it soon becomes impractical in large plantings. Where the size of the planting is too large, the next best plan is to sever the stem of the diseased plant with a knife a few inches below the soil surface. The top portion of the plant which is capable of spreading the infection most rapidly is placed in a paper bag which is closed while the "hunt" goes on.

It should be remembered that each spore under favorable conditions is capable of germinating and eventually starting up another fire head. Therefore, care should be exercised in removing the diseased specimens and keeping the bag closed while making the inspections. To assist in finding the fire heads, it is a good idea to first look for the pin-head sized water soaked markings on the leaves.

If a fire head is present, usually there will be observed dozens of such markings or spottings of the leaves of several plants within the radius of two to three feet of the fire head. Under adverse weather conditions when the pin-head spots (which are the areas where spores have germinated) develop most rapidly and when roguing out the fire heads seems to fail to keep ahead of the spread of the disease, spot-dusting with a mixture of lime and bordeaux mixture is suggested.

This mixture is used at the rate of one part hydrated lime and

SIDNEY MERCHANT CELEBRATES
10TH ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK

Well-known Sidney merchant, Stan Watling, marks his 10th anniversary as proprietor of Stan's Grocery this week. On Monday, March 31, 1941, Mr. Watling opened his store on Third St., opposite the Sidney Cold Storage, Ltd.

For two years or so he operated in that Third Street store, before moving to his present location on the corner of Beacon and Third. The genial merchant recalled a number of customers who were among the first to deal with him.

"I would not like to say which was actually the first customer," he said, "but they all deal with me still."

This year is the 25th that has seen Mr. Watling in the retail business. He started in Edmonton as a boy and has been serving the public since that time.

In 1939 Mr. Watling left his native Edmonton and came to the more temperate climate of the Saanich Peninsula.

It was not all plain sailing for the newcomer. For a while he worked at the Sidney Cannery and pursued various other tasks until he found his feet once again. His new foothold was with a Sidney grocer, H. J. Reading. For two years Mr. Watling was with Mr. Reading. In 1941 he launched his own business and has never looked backwards.

To mark the 10th anniversary of his store "Stan's Grocery," Mr. Watling has installed a new service. He has put in two frozen food, self-serve cabinets. One is for the dispensing of frozen foods and ice cream and the second for dairy produce. When the new equipment arrived at the beginning of the week it appeared unlikely that it could be installed within the store. The smaller cabinet was a difficult size to get through the doorway. The larger piece of equipment was considerably larger than the doorway. Ultimately the window was removed to permit the entry of the cabinet.

Mr. Watling has demonstrated his faith in the security of the Final touches to the Sidney Fire Hall are in the course of completion. J. Sims, who donated his labor for the coat of stucco on the exterior of the hall, has added an artistic touch, where the axe and hat of a fireman are depicted in the stucco.

The averages in New York are now in the vicinity of the 245 mark or ten points below their recent high.

The London Stock Exchange opened up this week in a buoyant trading session following the announcement of a £247,000,000 surplus.

The easing of restrictions on the export of natural gas from Alberta into the U.S. caused speculation as to the possibility of a pipeline into B.C. and Peace River Natural Gas shares were, as a result, quite active around $3.50 to $3.60 per share. Several new gas wells have been brought

The hall is now completed except for the painting. Mitchell and Anderson Lumber Company have donated eight gallons of paint for the interior, and Miss J. Christie has provided one gallon of aluminum paint.

Consumer Expert

"The busy Canadian housewife hasn't time for much experimenting so I do it for her", says Allison Grant, the CBC's consumer expert and women's commentator. Here she is examining new kitchen equipment before telling her listeners about it. Testing new products is just part of her job. Her broadcasts cover new food laws, tips on housekeeping, Canadian women in the news, and the answers to enquiries she gets on a host of topics.
Mrs. Grant is heard Tuesday afternoons at 1:15 on CBC. She has helped solve many listeners' problems in her two years of broadcasting, either by her own research or by bringing other experts to the microphone. But the real test is a problem of her own:
how to find an electric stove with an oven you can reach without bending over.

Sidney Needs a New Hotel . . . BUT

The hotels in Victoria without beer parlors are preferable to the beer parlor hotels in the vicinity of "Murder Mile" on the Island Highway. If Victoria can do it why can't we?

We agree with the reported statements of Attorney General Wismar, that B.C.'s liquor bill is too high already and that increasing the number of attractive liquor outlets will increase drinking by our Youth.
Our Youth are our greatest heritage, let us all support our school board in its efforts to provide better and more attractive schools for our community. Even if costs are increasing we need new schools. Let us remember that we already spend three times more for liquor in B.C. than we do for our entire school system.

Approve more money for schools—
Less money for beer.
(We can't provide for both).

"EAST POINT COFFEE" SHORT CUTS SUPPLIES FROM BRAZIL

(By Andy Ritchie, East Point Lighthouse, Saturna Island)

It is indeed strange, how distant and the mystery of the tropics, lends enchantment to a small piece of vegetable matter which to many of us, has become an almost irreplaceable necessity of our daily living: namely, the coffee bean. Many people have become almost slaves to the drinking of coffee, purely from habit or custom, rather than from any particular effect or benefit derived from it.

During the last war, many (so called) substitutes for coffee were produced, but most of them were not only unlike coffee, they also lacked any flavor individuality of their own, and consequently had little to offer. I am happy to say that "East Point Coffee" which we grow here at the lighthouse on Saturna Island, not only has flavor individuality, it is also so like bean coffee, that many people who have tried it, were unable to tell that it was not bean coffee. Furthermore, it is nicer than bean coffee and should be absolutely harmless and healthful for all ages from seven to 70.

Backyard Brew
It can be grown in abundance in practically any back-yard or garden in Canada, or can be purchased for from $1 to $7 per 100 pounds depending on the whim of the Marketing Board. Like coffee beans, it must be roasted, but does not lose its aroma as readily as the coffee bean. Preparation and roasting of "East Point Coffee" takes about an hour, and the brewing is done in exactly the same manner as bean coffee: boil, silex or percolate. It doesn't get bitter, so the length of the brewing is not critical and can be readily determined. The amount used is just about the same as when making bean coffee, measuring by bulk, because "East Point Coffee" weighs about one-third as heavy as bean coffee.

The Thing
The thing is a lowly, ordinary, common or garden carrot, and a one-pound carrot will make about 20 cups of the best "coffee" you ever drank. To make a batch of "East Point Coffee" simply wash one or two carrots and shred them on to a cookie tray. Place the tray in the oven and dry and roast until the carrot shreds are golden to dark brown. Loosen and turn the shredded carrot as it nears the brown stage. It will finish up part golden-brown and mostly dark brown and some possibly nearly black. Do not crush it fine or it will pass through the percolator too easily.

You have now made yourself a batch of "East Point Coffee". If you drink this every morning for a week, you too will wonder why we have always sent to Brazil for coffee, when we can grow a better "coffee" right here in our own back-yards.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

You can bank on the "Royal"

flat on one's face

"Know-how" is a popular phrase in these times — the western nations' industrial know-how is said to be their greatest hope. But it is not enough to know how to do a job. Doing it is what counts. Between knowing and doing there are usually a surprising number of opportunities for falling flat on one's face.

The textile industry in Canada, of which Dominion Textile is a part, has been practicing for over a century to avoid falling flat on its face. While learning its job and doing it, the industry has become the largest employer of manufacturing labor in Canada and the payer of the largest manufacturing wage bill.

ANNUAL CONCERT AT SALT SPRING ISLAND FEATURES TALENTED GROUP

Under the direction of Mrs. G. B. Young, the Salt Spring Island Choral Society held its annual concert last Thursday evening in the Mahon Hall, Ganges, when four guest artists and 27 members of the group presented a delightful program of vocal and instrumental solos and several choral numbers.

This year the entertainment was given from the floor of the hall. The stage, which was banked with tiers of greenery, daffodils and other spring flowers formed an effective background for the performers. For the very artistic floral arrangement Mrs. J. Bat and Mrs. G. H. Holmes were jointly responsible.

Mrs. Warren Hastings with her sympathetic rendering of the pianoforte solos, Chopin's "Nocturne" Opus No. 1 and "Sea Pieces," as always, delighted her audience. The violin solos of Mrs. H. J. Wood "Berceuse" (Jocelyn), "Russian Gipsy Folk Song," "Accolay Concerto in A Minor," "Old Folks at Home" and, also, Mrs. Olive Stuart's pianoforte solo "Andante Rondo Capriccioso," followed by one of her own compositions, had an excellent reception and well merited the applause they received.

Popular Chorus
Mrs. L. Parham made a popular father being Cecil Hawkins, Sardis; the six-week-old infant received the names of David Ross, the godfather being Ross Young, of Fulford.

A small reception following the service was held at the home of the children's parents and was also held in honor of their daughter, Elizabeth, who was celebrating her sixth birthday.

The room was gay with spring flowers and the table, at which tea was poured by Mrs. V. Norman, Victoria, was centred with the white christening cake flanked by daffodils and mauve crocuses.

Among those present were Mrs. S. P. Beech, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ireland, Archdeacon and Mrs. G. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman, Mrs. F. Philip, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waggit, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Young, Misses Diane Beech, Olive Kitchener, Anne Norman and several children.

choice with her songs, "Your Wonderful Eyes," "The West, a Nest and You," "Let the Rest of the World Go By," "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." They charmed everyone and she was accorded an enthusiastic reception. Included in the contributions of the choral society were "The Heavens Are Telling," "Deep River," "Miller of the Dee," "Come Let Us Join the Roundelay," "All Through the Night," "Bless This House," "My Love Is Like a Red Red Rose," "In Dulci Jubilo," "Hark the Lark," "Hunting Song," "Rose of Tralee," "Strange Adventure" and "Where Art Thou Beam of Light?" which were all greatly appreciated.

The president, Joseph Bate, in his brief speech, expressed his pleasure at the reception given to the concert, thanked the guest artists for their valuable assistance, spoke of the work of the society during the past year and expressed the hope that more residents of the island would join, when the next season started in September.

NOTICE

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 64 (SALTSRING)

SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 64 (Saltspring) SCHOOL LOAN BY-LAW NO. 1 is presented for your consideration, and you will have the opportunity to vote on this By-law on Monday, April 16th, 1951.

Your Board of School Trustees presents the following explanations:

The Board of School Trustees has made an extensive survey of all anticipated building requirements for the next few years and has included these in this By-law.

SOUTH GALIANO SCHOOL—The Board recommends that an amount of money be allowed to build a new two-room school at South Galiano. It is felt that the present location and building are not satisfactory and should the school population warrant it, the Board recommends that a new school be built sometime in 1952 or 1953. A new site in an appropriate location has been donated for this purpose.

MAYNE ISLAND—Your Board recommends that a new woodshed be built at the Mayne Island School, as the present one is in a very poor state of repair.

GANGES—It is necessary to provide additional class rooms at Ganges, and your Trustees recommend that an addition providing two class rooms and a large activity room be built on to the Ganges School.

The Board also recommends that certain changes be made in the Industrial Arts room at Ganges; these will provide for a drafting room within the present building, as well as constructing a forge room at the north side of the present school.

NORTH GALIANO SCHOOL—Your Trustees recommend that additional windows be put in the north wall of the building at this location. Further, that a woodshed be built, also that the steps be re-constructed and that other minor repairs be carried out.

PENDER ISLAND SCHOOL—The Board recommends that repairs be made to the roof of this school and that a cement floor be put in the present basement, as well as other minor repairs.

SOUTH PENDER ISLAND SCHOOL—Your Trustees recommend the repair of the roof of this building.

MAHON HALL (GANGES)—This building is owned by your School District and is used mainly as a Gymnasium for the Ganges School. Your Board recommends alterations to this building to provide more room for Gymnasium and Drama facilities. It has been necessary for your Board to allow sufficient money to cover other contingencies, architect's costs, cost of By-law and Debenture expenses, have been included. It has been necessary for your Board to anticipate maximum expenditures in all cases, but you are assured that every effort will be made to keep the amount expended to a minimum.

Meetings are being arranged at all points in the District where representatives of your Board of School Trustees will be present. Your Trustees urge you to attend the meetings and they will welcome questions on all matters pertaining to the By-law. The following is a list of meetings to be held:

Pythian Dignitaries Visit Sidney Lodges

On Wednesday, March 28, in the K. P. Hall, Sidney, Victoria Lodge, No. 63, Knights of Pythias, and Victory Temple, No. 63, Pythian Sisters, held a joint meeting. The occasion was the official visit of H. Rupert Brown, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias in the Grand Domain of British Columbia.

Chancellor Commander M. Johnson presided. After seating Most Excellent Chief Taylor and the Grand Chancellor, he called on District Deputy Grand Chancellor L. Parkin, of Capital City Lodge, No. 61, Victoria, for his message.

Following this Grand Chancellor Brown spoke at some length on the work of the Knights of Pythias, explaining how the per capita tax paid on each member was used to maintain the Fountain Fund, the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, the B.C. Musical Competition, the Public-Speaking Contest and other worthy causes. He thanked the Knights and Sisters for the splendid support he had received during his term of office, which will expire when Grand Lodge meets in Victoria May 17 and 18.

Following the meeting refreshments were served, under the able direction of the refreshment committee chairman, George Cochran.

Former Sidney Lady Is Called By Death

Word has been received of the passing of Mrs. Emma B. Dakin, 149 Parkside Dr., Berkeley 5, Calif., and formerly of McTavish Road, Sidney. She died at the home of her son, Dr. William B. Dakin, on March 22.

She is survived by her husband, Alfred J. Dakin; one son, Dr. Dakin, of Berkeley, and grandson, Garry, Fermona, Calif.

She was a member of the W.A. of Holy Trinity church, Patricia Bay.

While resident in this district, Mr. Dakin was connected with the C.I.L. at James Island for many years.

Funeral services were held at the Chapel of Flowers, Berkeley, Calif.

ACTIVE MONTH FOR BUILDERS

North Saanich builders have been active during the month of March. Permits to the value of $39,265 were issued during that month by W. R. Cannon, building inspector for the North Saanich Regulated Area.

The figure is slightly below that of March, 1950, when permits were issued to the value of $46,540.

The month's figures include seven dwellings, valued $34,460 and ten miscellaneous structures and additions to dwellings worth $4,805.

SECRETARY TO VETERANS' UNIT

Major D. J. McGlashan, of Second St., Sidney, has taken over the duties of secretary-treasurer of the Sidney Unit of the Army, Navy & Air Force Veterans of Canada. W. Waters, who has, hitherto, been carrying out the dual roles of secretary and steward, has relinquished the former office and is attending to the duties of the stewardship.

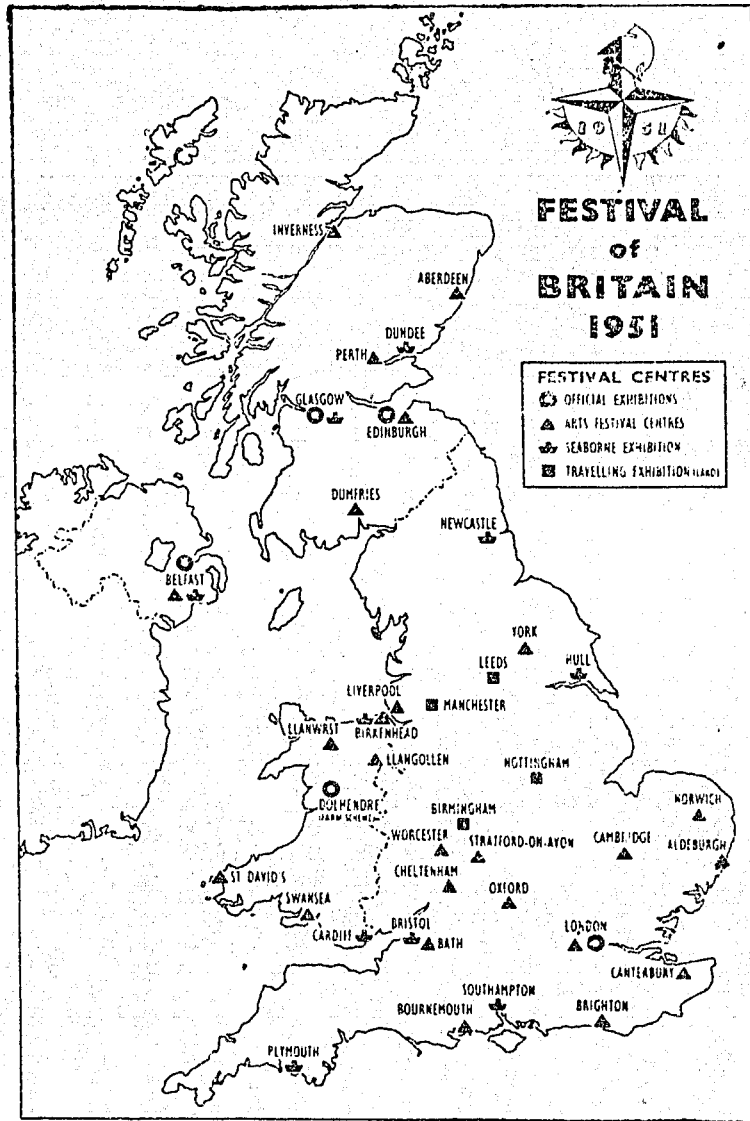

Mr. Waters has been associated with the branch since its formation two years ago. For a time he was in charge of the construction project and carried out his secretarial duties at the same time. Since the hall on the corner of Fourth and Beacon has been completed the combined duties have developed into a task too heavy for one man.

Major McGlashan is a familiar figure to many members of the club. He is a retired accountant. The new secretary and his wife came to Sidney several years ago, having resided up-Island previously.

Colts officially become horses at the age of five years.

This map shows the official Festival centres in England, Scotland and Wales and Northern Ireland. Marking the centenary of the historic Crystal Palace Exhibition of 1851, the Festival will put the whole of the British Isles on show to its own people and to the world, and will be the greatest national event ever conceived. It will mirror the vitality of Great Britain in the fields of discovery, exploration, industry, transport, farming, the home and sea, sports, music and the arts. Although London will be the focal point, hundreds of towns and villages throughout the land will celebrate in their own traditional way and for the five Festival months, May to September, 1951, Britain will be at home to the world.

Sheep Stealing Not New

Dartmoor, famed in fact and fiction, is one of the most desolate parts of England. Its morasses and tors (huge chunks of granite rising from hillsides) make it a rugged area. Thievery and other dark dealings have been associated with its long past.

Now, reportedly, there is a new sort of trouble. Sheep rustlers are using trucks to grab these animals, sell the mutton and wool, both of which bring high prices. Though there are only two main roads crossing the 200 square mile area, and the sheep roam far from the roads, one owner reports having lost an entire flock of 90, while another lost 100.

Sheep stealing is not entirely a new crime in the British Isles, though using trucks gives a new twist to it. Amongst the populace it once was not regarded as a particularly dishonorable vocation, provided one didn't get caught, being something in the category of poaching. There are Canadians who rather boast of their ancestors having been sheep stealers, who came to this new land to escape the due processes of the law—which in those days was tough on sheep stealers.

MORE ABOUT CAPT. PAYNE

occupation with the tug companies about the area. The sea was in his blood, as it is with most of the men raised among the Gulf Islands. In 1944 he left the tugs and turned his attention to commercial fishing.

For a number of years Capt. Payne had been living in Vancouver. He came to Deep Cove and focussed his eyes on the halibut and salmon industries. Since that time he has been a prominent figure in this basic industry of the province. He is also a member of the fishermen's committee of Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce and vice-president of the Sidney local of the fishermen's union.

Capt. Payne discounted the suggestion that his was an easy task. He cannot work a full 12 months each year, he explained, but "there is no 40-hour week in this business."

18-Hour Day He recalled his halibut fishing last year. The average running time during July was 18 hours a day, he stated. This was in spite of several days when they were idle. Thus on some occasions he and his crew would work up to 18 hours in a day. He does not work 12 months, he said, but he does 12 months' work, and more, in a year.

The fisherman is married and supports a family of two children. During the next two weeks or so he will be leaving for an extended trip. The season opens for halibut in May.
